Disclaimer

The Consumer Protection from Unfair Trading Regulations 2008 (CPRs) necessitate estate and letting agents to provide 'Material Information' so that consumers can make an informed decision when they buy or let a property.

This form has been completed by the seller. The seller may be the owner or owners, or a representative with the necessary authority to sell the property (e.g. executor or attorney) or be selling in some other capacity. The form should be read as though the questions were being answered by the seller.

Under the Consumer Protection Regulations 2008 both the seller and agent must disclose anything, within their knowledge, that could affect the transactional decision of the average consumer. This form runs in line with the Consumer Protection Regulations 2008 and as such it has been completed as wholly, truthfully and accurately as possible and in good faith and to the best of the sellers knowledge. It does not form part of any offer or contract.

If there are any changes which alter the information provided, we will update this form as soon as possible. You should verify all information by inspection or with your solicitor prior to exchanging contracts. Nothing within the material information constitutes a survey or legal advice and it should not be assumed that the property has all necessary planning, building regulation or other consents and we have not tested any services, equipment or facilities.
