- Newly Renovated Apartment
- Abbey Views
- No Lease Restrictions
- Central Location
- Parking space available as a separate negotiation

Finished to a high standard and located in the centre of town just a short walk from the West Cliff area of Whitby the attention to detail in this apartment is apparent upon entry. With quality flooring and finishes throughout, the open plan lounge is spacious and light with two large windows framing the street opposite perfectly, this gives a lovely aspect. The kitchen is sleek and modern with integrated electric oven and hob and larger fridge freezer.

There are two double bedrooms and a beautifully fitted bathroom suite, comprising, large walk in shower, wash basin and W.C. complete with heated towel rail and LED Mirror. Including a video entry system and Dimplex Q, wifi enabled electric radiators, adding further to the convenience of this property. With the option of parking available through separate negotiation, this property covers all essential needs. Along with this apartment there is a very spacious loft with ladder that could be purposed as useful storage, or even extra living space - given the relevant permissions.

With no restrictions on holiday letting or pets at the apartment a 999 yr Lease will be in place with a share of the freehold for each of the purchasers within this block of stunning apartments. Whether looking for a permanent home or investment property, these apartments really do lend themselves to a variety of buyers.
