

Crescent Place, Whitby, YO21

Guide Price £365,000

hendersons.
estate agents

This stylish and spacious four-bedroom townhouse has been beautifully refurbished by the current vendors, blending elegant period features with contemporary design to create a truly impressive home.

Key Features

- Fully refurbished four-bedroom townhouse in sought-after Whitby location
- Stylish interiors blending period charm with modern finishes
- Bright bay-fronted living room with feature fireplace
- Contemporary kitchen with oak worktops, teal cabinetry and log burner
- Stylish bedrooms and modern bathrooms throughout
- Short stroll to Whitby harbour, beach and town centre

Perfectly positioned on Crescent Place, the property is just a short stroll from Whitby's harbour, beach, and town centre, making it ideal for both full-time living and as a coastal retreat.

Set across four floors, the accommodation is thoughtfully arranged and finished to an exceptional standard throughout. The welcoming entrance hall, with its feature staircase, high ceilings and period detailing, immediately sets the tone for the rest of the home. At the front of the property, the bright and elegant living room enjoys a bay window, decorative fireplace, ceiling rose and picture rail, creating a perfect space for entertaining or relaxing.

Downstairs, the heart of the home is the modern kitchen and family room. This space features stylish teal cabinetry, oak worktops and integrated appliances, opening into a cosy seating area with a beautiful log burner, ideal for informal gatherings. There is also a useful wc and storage cupboard. The refurbishment works have been carried out with great care, preserving the property's original character while introducing modern comforts, updated heating and tasteful décor throughout.

The four bedrooms offer ample space and flexibility for family living or visiting guests. The principal bedroom is particularly impressive, with character windows allowing natural light to fill the room. There are two bathrooms which are both beautifully appointed, featuring contemporary fittings that complement the home's overall style.

Externally, the property enjoys a prime central location with on-street parking available nearby. There is a decked garden area to the front, with a private enclosed yard area to the rear which would make a cosy evening dining area. With its blend of historic charm and modern convenience, this home offers a rare opportunity to purchase a turnkey townhouse in one of Whitby's most sought-after streets.

