A Stunning One-Bedroom Apartment in the stunning Sneaton Hall development, filled with character and original features.

Set within the impressive Sneaton Hall development, this beautifully presented one-bedroom apartment offers a rare opportunity to acquire a home of exceptional character and charm. Generous in its proportions and brimming with original period features, the property perfectly blends historic elegance with modern comforts.

The apartment benefits from its own independent access, with new windows and double doors from the lounge, enhancing both energy efficiency and style. The accommodation flows seamlessly, featuring a spacious living area, a well-appointed kitchen, a large double bedroom with coving, original wooden shutters, and a characterful bathroom complete with a roll top bath. Modern comforts include WiFi-controlled electric heating, ensuring convenience and efficiency throughout the seasons.

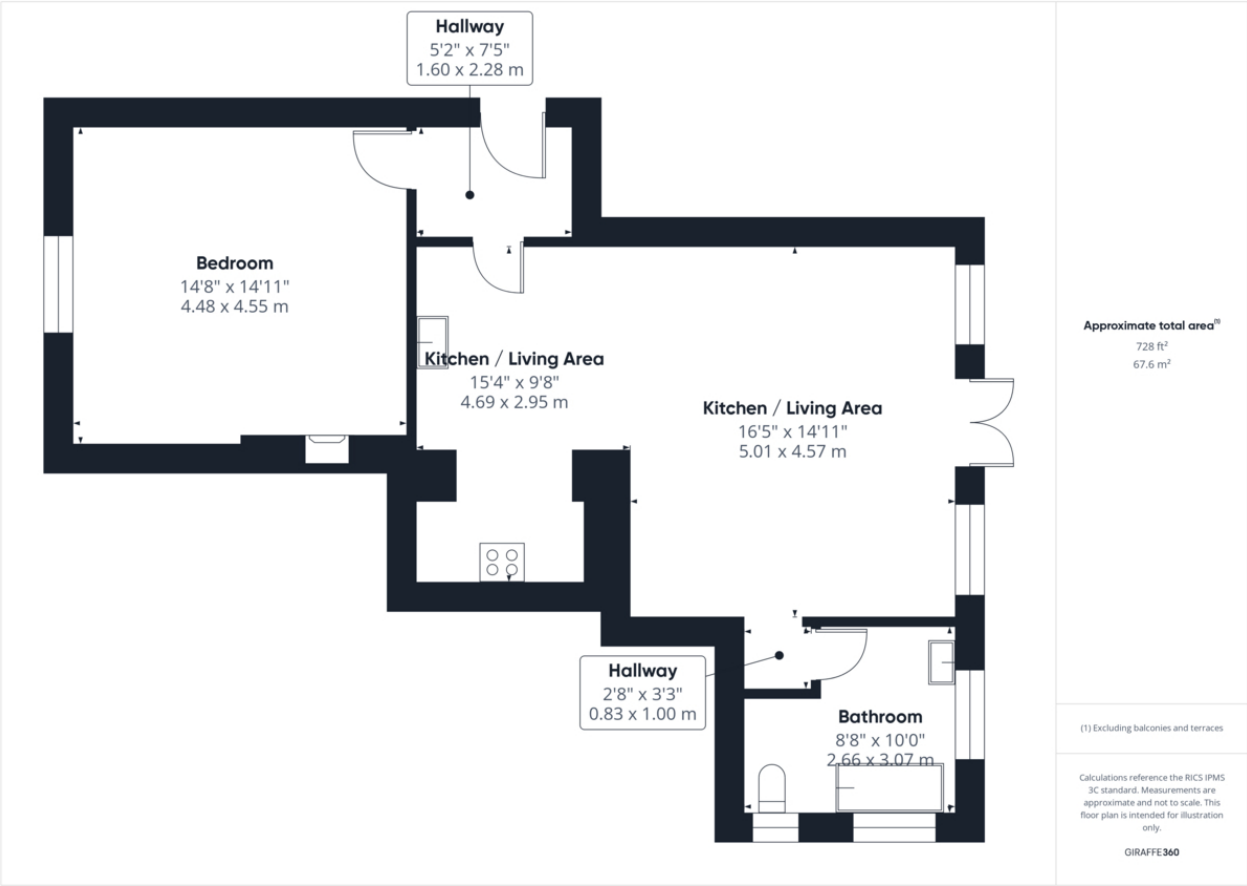

Externally, the property boasts a large private patio – perfect for al fresco dining, entertaining, or simply relaxing in a tranquil setting. In addition, there is private parking, along with the use of the beautifully maintained communal gardens. From here, residents enjoy breathtaking views across to the famous Whitby skyline, a truly spectacular backdrop.

Currently operating as a successful holiday let, the apartment is available fully furnished, offering a smooth and straightforward transition for its next owners – whether as a permanent residence, second home, or investment property.

With its unique combination of character, space, and enviable location, this exceptional apartment at Sneaton Hall is not to be missed.

The property is held on a leasehold basis but all the leaseholders own the freehold, which is a great advantage for peace of mind.
